POSSES ON TRAIL AVIATORS AWAIT OF TRAIN BANDITS WRIGHT DECISION

Robbers Who Caused Death of Man Thought to Be Surrounded in Swamp.

Atlanta, Ga., April 11.—Posses headed by Sheriff Billard of Tanguishaw Parish, and Special Agent Young, of the Illinois Central Railway, to-night surrounded the swamp, near here, where they expected to capture the two white men who to-day attempted to hold up Illinois Central trains at New Haven, holding four passengers, and causing the death of Captain Anderson, who jumped from the train and was ground to death beneath the wheels.

It was expected that the men would be captured before morning, as one of them was said to be hunting from a boat when he shot Captain Anderson, who was captured by the bandits on the bandits as they left the train.

The attempted hold-up occurred between Atlanta and Tanguishaw, a few miles north of here, and it is believed the robbers expected to secure large sums from paymasters of lumber companies in this section, who are usually present on this train on Saturday, the weekly pay day.

STILL CAPTURED.

NO MARRIAGE—ALREADY MARRIED.

Miss Irene Deacon, of this city, and William G. Pickett, of Washington, N. C., were to have been married in Pullen Memorial Baptist Church this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, but it became known this morning that there would be no ceremony, and that they were, in fact, already on their way to Washington and Philadelphia, leaving word to their friends that they were already married. The ceremony having taken place on June 29 last in Asheville, and kept secret all these months.

Their real purpose in having issued invitations for their marriage in Pullen Memorial Church to-day was to announce their previous wedding, but their plans were suddenly changed. During the past few weeks a number of friends and other social affairs have been given in honor of her approaching wedding.
